

New York Clipper, April 23, 1864, n.p.n. All information should be checked with additional sources.

Ben Maginley has returned to Memphis with his circus company, comprising M'lle Marie (Mrs. Ben), the Conklins, Hannan, Powers, etc., and the wonderful Quadrapeds, the trick horse, and the educated Taurus, "Don Juan." The winds are high, and the showers heavy, but heavier still is the hand of military power, which keeps everything in the way of amusement and pleasure, "down, very down."