

MELVILLE, MAGINLEY & COOKE'S
 Centennial Circus and Thespian Company,
 WILL EXHIBIT AT NYACK,
 ON TUESDAY, AUGUST 24TH, 1875.

Afternoon & Evening,

WHEN THE FOLLOWING ARTISTS WILL APPEAR:

JAMES MELVILLE.
 The Australian Bareback Rider,
 JAMES COOKE.
 The Celebrated English Jester,
 FRANK MELVILLE.
 The Graceful & Classic Equestrian,
 GEORGE DONALD.
 The Bareback Somersault Rider,
 YOUNG ALEXANDER.
 The Boy Wonder,
 ROWLAND.
 The King of the Air,
 MILE. COOKE.
 The Daring Female Equestrienne,
 MISS LIZZIE KEYS.
 The Daring Female Equestrienne,
 ROBINSON.
 The India Rubber Man,
 AND A HOST OF OTHERS.

Ring, Trick and Manage Horses,
 Ponies and Comic Mules,

CIRCUS RIDING EXPOSED,
 The most amusing act ever put in the ring, and entirely new.

IN THE EVENING WILL BE PRODUCED

Grand Historical and Military Spectacle of

PUTNAM,

The Iron Son of '76,

In which will appear the entire strength of the Company.
 The hand to hand fights. Sword combats on horseback.
 Rescue of Kate Putnam and Grand Apotheosis of Washington brilliantly illuminated with Colored Fires will be the grandest spectacle ever seen under a canvas.

At 10 o'clock, A.M., the BAND CHARIOT, drawn by 10
 Beautiful Dappled Gray Horses, Magnificently Caparisoned, and bearing therein Mr. JOSEPH WITHERS' splendid Band, will pass through the principal streets, discouraging the popular airs of the day.

Read the following letter and judge us by our merits:

A FITTING TRIBUTE.

CITY OF ALBANY,
 STATE OF NEW YORK,
 July 21st, 1875.

Messrs. Melville, Maginley & Cooke:
 GENTLEMEN:—We had the pleasure of witnessing your entertainment during your stay in this city, and found it meritorious in the highest degree. Your performance throughout was excellent, nothing coarse or offensive, and therefore deeming it our duty to acknowledge the superiority of your company, we assure you, should you ever return to the City of Albany, you will meet with a hearty welcome.

Wishing you success in your travels, and with our best recommendations wherever you appear,

We remain, gentlemen, yours truly,

E. L. Judson, Mayor of Albany,
 Charles Van Bruntuisen & Sons,
 John Clomshiro,
 D. L. Babcock,
 Col. J. N. Dickerman,
 John Brennan, Captain of Police,
 Thomas W. Stevens,
 Philip O'Brien, Fire Commissioner,
 Capt. Jackson H. Chase,
 J. J. Price,
 Ex-Alderman Michael Delebrant,
 Capt. John Hastings, Prop'r Albany Knickerbocker,
 William H. Johnson,
 John Maloy, Chief of Police,
 Albert Goding, Sheriff,
 Ariel Lathrop,
 Col. J. C. Cuyler, Moravian Express,
 James McQuade, Chief Engineer,
 Thomas Willard, Police Commissioner,
 Alderman Joseph McCann,
 Gen. D. M. Woodhall,
 Col. Fred. Andus,
 Major Charles E. Leland,
 Warren Leland,
 R. M. Griffin & Co., Evening Post,
 P. Ryan,
 J. Henry Curtis.

WAIT FOR US.

We have, without doubt, the finest performance given under a Canvas. Nothing coarse or offensive. No Side Shows. No Speculators.

A GENUINE LEGITIMATE CIRCUS.

Admission, - - - 50 cents. Children under 10 years, - - - 25 cents.

Doors open at 1 and 7 o'clock. Performances commencing at 2 and 8 o'clock.

DON'T FORGET THE DATE.

NYACK, TUESDAY, AUGUST 24th,
 WHITE PLAINS, SATURDAY, AUG. 21st.
 HAVERSTRAW, MONDAY, AUG. 23d.
 A. M. NATHANS, Gen'l Agent.

MARRIAGES.

TEMPER-LOCKE—At Waldberg, on the 15th inst., Capt.
 John F. Tallman, aged 50 years. Remains were interred in family plot in Oak Hill Cemetery Nyack, Thursday, the 19th.

DEATHS.

TALLEMAN—At Harlem, N. Y., on the 14th inst., Capt.
 John F. Tallman, aged 50 years. Remains were interred in family plot in Oak Hill Cemetery Nyack, Thursday, the 19th.

TALMAGE—At Tappan, Smolky, the 13th inst., Catharine H. widow of the late William S. Talmage, in the 62th year of her age.

LEACH—At Clarkstown, August 16th, 1875, Eliza Leach, aged 75 years, 4 months and 23 days.

THOMPSON—At Birmont, on Tuesday, the 17th inst.,
 Samuel Thompson, aged 29 years and 10 months.

TOMKINS—At Clarksville, on Tuesday, the 17th inst., Frederick G., infant son of Sidney B. and Mary H.
 Tomkins, aged 10 months and 23 days.

BOGERT—At Blauveltville, 17th inst., Franklin P.
 Bogert, aged 22 years, 7 months and 4 days.

JONES—At Clarkstown, 17th inst., Mrs. Francis J. Jones, aged 96 years, 2 months and 23 days.

YOUNG—At Upper Nyack, 18th inst., Harry Youngman, aged 7 months.

KANE—At Nyack, 18th inst., Sarah Louisa Kane, aged 11 months and 18 days.

FOR SALE.—A light working boat, 18 feet long; will be disposed of cheap if called for soon.
 Address, C. T. W., 29 Liberty St., N. Y.

PORTRAIT PAINTING.—The undersigned having opened a studio in Commercial Building, Broadway, the public are respectfully invited to call and examine specimens of his work.
 J. MASSALON, Artist,
 Nyack, N. Y.

NYACK HOME INSTITUTE,
 CLINTON STREET,
 (BETWEEN FIRST AND THIRD AVENUES)

A Boarding & Day School
 FOR BOTH SEXES,
 Re-opens September 7th, 1875,
 IN THE NEW BUILDING,
 Mr. & Mrs. D. P. LEE,
 PRINCIPALS.

FOR SALE—A Pair of Trotters, a Pair of Mules and Two Buggy Wagons—the two best Equire of
 H. HYERSON, Tappan, N. Y.

GO to your Druggist and get a box of Rosen-miller's CATARRH POWDER. No silver ointment, ointment, or salve, 25 cents a box.
 A. ROSEN-MILLER,
 172 8th Avenue, N. Y.

IF you want your Carriage or Sleigh Painted in first-class style, call on
 A. TAYLOR & SON,
 May 3-14 Main St., opposite Underdunk Block.

DOCKAGE AND STORAGE for receiving, discharging and storing cargoes of Lumber,
 Timber, Building Materials, Wood, Coal, Merchandise,
 &c. For terms, apply to
 W. W. TAULMAN,
 Central Dock,
 Piermont, New York.

D. R. C. H. TEN EYCK,
 FIRST AVENUE, NYACK.
 (Former associate of the late Dr. T. B. Smith.)