

Sir Leicester	James Carhart	Mrs. Rouncewell	Ada Wright
Tulkinghorn	J. A. Howell	Bucket	J. P. Burnett
Snagsby	E. L. Walton	Esther	Ethel Grey
Chadband	Thos. E. Jackson	Rosa	Josie Langley
Guppy	F. M. Hendrick	Mrs. Snagsby	Mrs. E. M. Post
The Coroner	J. E. Dodson	Hortense	Isabel Morris
Beadle	T. F. McCabe	Jo	Jennie Lee
Lady Dedlock	Constance Murielle

Oliver Doud Byron came Sept. 12 in "Across the Continent," followed, Sept. 19, by Mr. and Mrs. McKee Rankin, who produced for the first time in America G. W. Wills' resetting of Douglas Jerrold's "William and Susan," which had this cast:

William Bowling	McKee Rankin	Capt. Crosstree	J. H. Barnes
Dame Green	Mrs. F. A. Tannehill	Lieut. Pierce	William Lee
Master at Arms	W. B. Murray	Slater	Archie Boyd
An Old Man	Tom Leigh	White	Geo. Ulmer
Susan	Mrs. McKee Rankin	Truck	Cyril Searle
Polly	Lizzie May Ulmer	Robert	Luke Martin
The Admiral	J. J. Holland

The theatre was closed Tuesday evening, Sept. 20, in consequence of the death of President Garfield; also Monday evening, Sept. 26, the day of the funeral.

The new American play, "'49," had its first representation on any stage Oct. 1. It had this cast:

"'49"	McKee Rankin	Mississippi	Mrs. Wallace Brittan
Tom Bradshaw	J. J. Sullivan	Arthur Dennison	J. H. Barnes
Soloman Kane	E. Lamb	Anthony Cousins	Luke Martin
Bedrock	Wm. Lee	Old Ned	Archibald Boyd
Carrots	Mrs. McKee Rankin	Col. Broadstreet	J. J. Holland
Belle	Lizzie May Ulmer	Mrs. Dennison	Emma Marble
Colonel James	Geo. Ulmer

"Our Strategists" returned Oct. 17 and played two weeks. Haverly's Mastodon minstrels followed Oct. 31. "Deacon Crankett" was seen Nov. 7.

Deacon Crankett	Benj. Maginley	Egbert Gray	E. J. Buckley
Elinor	Loduski Young	Heatherton	Harry Eyttinge
Mrs. Deacon Crankett	Annie Ware	Polly	Blanche Vaughan
Joe Thatcher	Jas. O'Neil	Mazel	T. F. Brennan