

AMUSEMENTS.

Charles Pope is at Pleasure Bay, N. J., actively completing arrangements for his forthcoming starring tour.

Colonel McCaull cables from London that he has secured two new operas and several well-known artists.

Roland Reed has a new topical song written by Mr. John A. Mackay entitled "When the World Turns Upside Down."

Ben Maginley has taken a positive stand against Sunday night performances and "May Blossom" will be seen only six nights in the week next season.

One of the yardmasters of the Erie railroad will superintend the railroad effects, switch signals, etc., in the forthcoming production of "The Main Line."

"Theodora" will be played for four weeks at Niblo's in September, and immediately after will begin its tour of the country, transporting all the scenery complete.