

Gossip of the Town. Benjamin Maginley "On Saturday night Mr. Maginley will begin a seven weeks' starring season in Inshavogue; or, The Patriots of '98, under the management of Charles H. Hicks, opening in New Haven. Mr. Maginley will be supported by a strong acting and musical company, including...the great Irish piper, Pat Touhey...."

New York Mirror Saturday April 16, 1887 p. 3 column 4

New York NY Dramatic Mirror 1886 Dec-Dec 1888 Grayscale - 0193.pdf

At the Theatres. "Benjamin Maginley was seen at the Grand Opera House yesterday afternoon and last night in a revised version of "Inshavogue," a drama of Irish life, which he revived last season. ...in its present shape it is a stronger attraction than ever...Pat Touhey and S.G. Smith help to make it so."

Syracuse Standard Nov. 1, 1887 p. 4 column 5

Syracuse NY Daily Standard 1887 Grayscale - 2568.pdf

Buffalo Court Street Theater.

Benjamin Maginley "Inshavogue" Nov. 28-Dec. 2

"Bryan O'Lynn as Thady had a chance to show his abilities as a dancer and a singer in a pleasing manner, and with Belle O'Lynn, who made an exceedingly pretty Kitty, was heartily encored for a number of jigs and reels. The bagpipe solo by P. Touhey as Terence was well received by the audience who demanded a repetition.... Throughot the play Irish patriotism and enthusiasm were kept at a fever heat."

Buffalo Express Nov. 29, 1887 p. 6 column 2

Newspaper Buffalo Ny Morning Express 1887 - 0991.pdf