alb. MANO IN & BAD LIGHT. The wholesale manner in which electric lights were being ordered brought Ald. Ash to his feet often the remonstrance. When the petitions for Jonawanda, Amberst, and other streets were granted he a-ked the Council to sail a hait; said that the electric-light companies had engaged men by the dozen to canva-a the streets of Black Black with petitions for electric light, and that they were getting hundreds of signaturer by misrepresentation.

"I Ist ought tree had engaged an Aiderman to can-wass for them," said Aid, Caliaban, smiling and looking toward Aid. Rano of Hack Rock.

"There old have him," replied Aid. Ash, "but thank God, we won't have him much longer. His term experes next month. I suppose I am the Alderman you refer to," said.

Aid, Kano merek . Yes, you are," replied Aid Ash. "You have been attending to if at business pretty closely."

THE MONOJULISTS' BIDS ACCEPTED. The Committee on Lamps, through Aid. Laughlin, reported tack again the bid of 47% cents a lamp per aight, made to the Cite by the combined electrics light companies—the Brosh Electric Light company, Lated States Flectric Light Compant, and Thombut-Houston Liestric Light & Power Companyalso the bid to the city by the combination of gas companies to furnish gas at $1.25 per 1.007 cubic feet to the City and $1.40 to private consumers. The committee had been unable, the report said to ger any further reduction from the builders. Ald, White moved to alord the report, and to instruct the Comperoiser to contract at once with the la juers at their price. Aid. Ash, with a tired look-got up and said he had hi-ped to lear a lower bid reported, but that nothing-not even public opinion-section alread encogn to break the combinations of gas and electrical the companies. Though there seemed to be to large for cheaper light, he toud never support the resouted of Ald, White. He voted against it, and was the only man in the Council who did. Alif. Callahan in justifying his vote, said that the new perce was 2% cents iones than the nid one for electric lights and five cents lower for gas. He was thens ful for small favors. Aid, White said that the Lamp Committee had held off the adoption of the bids for two days, to hear from the business-men's Association, which he understood wanted to be heard be-form the committee, It had sent its meetar to every Alderman, telling how much theaper. electricity was in other cities than in Buffalo, yet the electric-light came before the committee with an anewering document g ving the price paid in 44 cities of the country, showing the liverage price to be 52% cents a light per might - live reats more than the bid offered in buntato. THE SWAN-STREET PAVENERY ADAIN. The Clerk read a majority remonstrance from Mr. Isaac Baker and others against repaying 5 wan Street between South Ceder and Jefferson Streets. Hy coquest of President Patridge it was laid upon the table temporarite until he could get out of the chair and speak upon the subject from the floor. The matter concerned his word and the street he hard upon. Aid, Callahan later asked that the Committee on Streets be discharged from further consideration of the Swan-street paramete matter, because Chairman Schou of that committee refered to report the action taken by the committee. Alt. Seven got up having and denied that any action had ever been taken. The subject had often been sisenmed, but never passed upon. Mr. Patridge then gave the chair to Ald. McMaster, and from the floor reriewed the whole subject matter, telling how the trunk sewee spoiled on atready worm out stone pava-ment; how the Legislature authorized the appropriation of money from the general fund to repair the attest, and how the newer Commissioners had been asked to allow this repair-money to go toward a nen asphalt pavement. He was placed in a delicate position, he said, because among those who favored and or posed the new pavement were many of his life-long friends. lie and he teat been called upon by the asphalt con-tractor, and but been urged by him to push the petition for the parement; that he knew other Atrivers have been appearanted by the same contractor, who was even at that increent present in the Council Cramber. This caused several Abtermen to interrupt with the explanation that "Aroundy has asked me to vote for the pavement." Mr. Patridge asked that the whole subject matter be again refresed to the Committee on Streets, in spite of Ald, Callahan's request, to report in one week.

Interested persons were asked to speak, if present, and John W. Falmer, a lawyer, stepped forward in behalf of the petitioners for asphair. He seemed to behalf of the petitioners for asphant. He seemed to be very much excited. There had been two legal m. on to petitions for aspha-1, he said. They had been here et the Council over the months, and yet no action had been taken. Scenie illusions play so large a part in most modern stage productions that a representation destitute of such embelishment seems barren indeed. The production of "Faust" at the Grand Opera-house has ought must be judged solely on its musical merits, as the story was told to the ear rather than so the eve. The parrativa is familiar, following closely Coethe's poetic setting of the old legend. The score contains many numbers of great lyrie beauty, which are deservedly popular among rocal students. The artists who sang them last night, with the exception of Sig.
