

GENERAL MENTION.

Frank Jones and Alice Montague are presenting "Si Perkins" at the Standard.

Mr. George Riddle will give a reading to-morrow evening at the Madison-street Theater.

The Hanlon's "Voyage en Suisse" attracted another large audience last evening at the Grand Opera House.

"Francesca da Rimini," with F. C. Bangs as Lanciato, has entered upon the second week of its engagement at the Columbia.

Seats for "She" will be placed on sale at the Chicago Opera House to-morrow morning. The attraction opens at that house next Sunday night.

Kiralfy's "Around the World in Eighty Days" entered upon its second week to a good sized audience last evening at the Chicago Opera House.

Louis James and Marie Wainright, who come to the Haymarket April 1, go thence to the Fifth Avenue Theater, New York, for the rest of the season.

The smallest horse in the world is one of the attractions at Epstein's Museum. The McAndrew's Specially Company furnish the stage entertainment.

"The Golden Giant Mine" was the attraction last evening at the People's, and Mrs. McKee Rankin is credited with having made the greatest hit ever made in that theater.

Benjamin Maginly, the well-known comedian, supported by his own company, presented W. J. Florence's Irish drama "Inshavogue" last evening to a good-sized and appreciative audience at the Criterion.

The spectacle, "Zozo, the Magic Queen," attracted a good sized audience last evening at the Academy. The cast includes George H. Adams (Grimaldi), Tony Hanlon, Pauline Montegriffe, and others. The piece is presented with new costumes and attractive scenery.