

seventy years.

William B. Carroll, who was undoubtedly the oldest circus performer in this country, died recently at his home in Westchester, N. Y., at the age of seventy-four. He was familiarly known in the profession as "Uncle Barney Carroll."

M. Proust, the French Minister of Fine Arts, has written a letter announcing the