MRS. WALDEN'S JURY.

Eight Men Already Chosen to Sit in the Murder Trial.

The Woman Wears Widow's Weeds for the Man She Killed.

Her Appearance Counted Upon to Excite Sympathy in Court.

A slender, frail little woman, clad in deep mourning, walked before Judge John Brown from the "Down Town" marble Court-house this morning. The big doorway seemed cavernous above her lithe figure, and though his pace was very slow he felt no need to hurry as he walked in her rear.

Beneficial, Rico and Blackburn Meet at a Mite.

Quantity and not quality is the distinctive feature of yesterday's race for today. The fields are larger in several of the events and the entries are evenly matched, but interesting racing is bound to result, even though there are no cracks competing. The meeting between Beneficial, Rico and Blackburn at a mile will be the event of the day.

Probable Effect of the Indicted Executive Commissioners' Appeal.

It was said this morning that there were a good many surprises for the Republican leaders in the result of the Congressional Convention held last night, which selected delegates to the National convention at Minneapolis. Following are the complete lists of delegates chosen in the different districts:

Baraback-Rider Anate Saw Now Seeks a Divorce from Her Clown.

A romance of the circus ring might well be substituted for "Anate Carrol" show against John Saw, actor for divorce, the recent title of a play begun in the circuit court of Westchester county, and which has been the sport of newspaper men. A halcyon's recent show on earth is talking.

Police Sergeants and Roundmen Yet to Be Transferred.

Police sergeants have been chosen in greater extent in New York than in any other city. The big shake-up which inaugurates part of the administration of the Police Department is being completed in the transfer of the sergeants and roundmen. The names of the sergeants to be transferred are:...

Supl. Byrnes Inaugurates a Thorough Reorganization of the Force.

Not more attention has ever been given in New York to the reorganization of the Police Department than in the past few years. The big shake-up which inaugurates part of the administration of the Police Department is being completed in the transfer of the sergeants and roundmen. The names of the sergeants to be transferred are:...
