

from “Olympians of the Sawdust Circle”

CARROLL, ANNIE. Equestrienne

Bound servant of W. B. and Mary Ann Carroll and mother of Edna Snow. Married gymnast Eddie Snow, 1887; but sued for divorce April, 1892. Spalding, Rogers & Van Orden, 1851; Great Eastern, 1872-73; Maginley & Co., 1874; Cameron's, 1875; John H. Murray's, 1877; Adam Forepaugh's, 1879-80, 1886; VanAmburgh's, 1882; Wallace & Co., 1885; Great European, Cosmopolitan Rink, Broadway & 41st Street, NYC, winter 1885-86; Doris & Colvin, 1887; W. B. Reynolds' Consolidated Shows, 1892; Charles McMahon's, 1893. It was announced, October 5, 1918, that she had ruined her own health by nursing her daughter, Edna, a well known soubrette, who had been sick for 3 years of cancer of the stomach.