

---

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—To night will be presented one of the most attractive bills of the season, at the Academy of Music. The new Irish drama entitled "The White Horse of the Peppers;" in which piece we observe the names of Mr. S. W. Glenn, Mr. B. R. Maginley and Miss Addie Proctor—Mr. Glenn as Major Hans Mansfeldt, and Mr. Maginley as Gerald Pepper, in which character he will sing an Irish song and he and Miss Proctor dance an Irish jig. The bare mention of the name of Maginley in the caste is sufficient of itself to secure a full house; but in this play, more particularly, he is sure to produce real "side-splitting" with his mirth-provoking representation of Irish character. Also, will be presented the "Four Sisters" and the "Dutchman's Ghost." We bespeak a crowded house to-night, and would advise those who wish a favorite seat to secure it early.

Mr. Glenn, in the characters of Solon Shingle in the play of "Yankee Teamster," and John Schmidt in the "Persecuted Dutchman," appeared before a delighted audience and well-filled house. His personation of the Yankee character we think quite as good as his Dutch. Throughout the whole evening he kept the audience in a roar of laughter.

---